

Potton Market Square.

View of The Shambles, shops and horse and cart.

1994. The Clock House; L.R. Clayton, Family Butcher; Regent's Chinese Cuisine.

Then and Now.

View into Brook End: note the Blacksmith's shop. Mr.F.T.Cox took over the Newsagent's business from Mr.Richard Elphick in 1940.

1994. The Forge Garage stands on the site of the Blacksmith's Shop. Cox's News is run by K.P.Newsagents.

July 1993

Potton Market Square - looking towards Brook End.

Right:
Note the modern view looking towards the Forge Garage, Brook End.

Compare the windows of the former butcher's shop and those of Regents Chinese Cuisine.

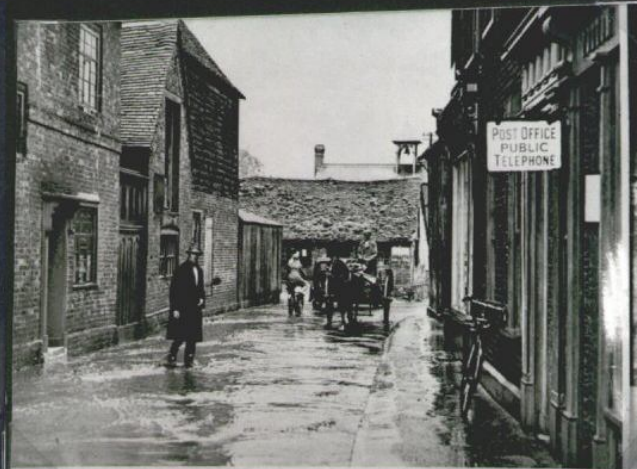

Facing: note the windows and doorway.

Circa 1947.

Flood water from the Brook reached the Market Square after severe weather.

Mr. George Daisley.

Then and Now.

March 1947. Flooding as a result of melting snow.

Left: George Daisley.

Brook End in April 1995

